Start Date:	1 st April 2007
End Date:	31 st March 2008

Summary:

The commissioned work will build upon seven years of experience of working with disaffected young people. It will continue to employ two qualified and experienced part time youth workers, sessional workers, specialist workers and support volunteers, trainees and university placements.

The work will take place in three locations throughout Werneth, Freehold and Coppice areas. One session is female only.

The initiative is aimed at individuals, who face barriers to reaching their full potential and who have, or are at risk of, dropping out of mainstream education, training or employment.

The target group is considered to be the 'hardest to reach; young people to engage with.
